

Three Types of Canada Gives DAF Accounts

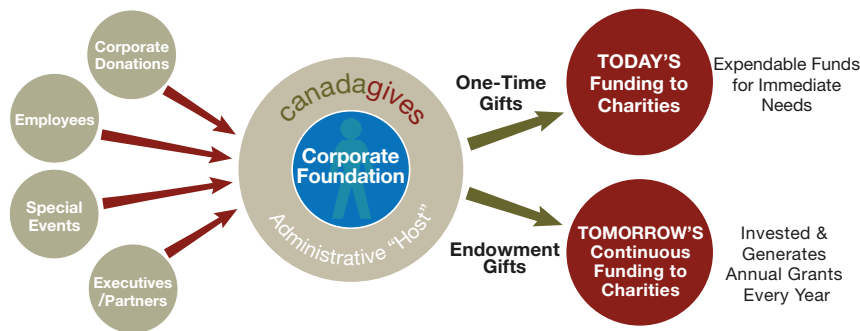

The following provides an overview of the three types of donor advised funds offered by Canada Gives.

Personal/Family Foundation Account

Allows individuals and families to set up their own Canada Gives Foundation Account, often as an alternative to a private foundation.

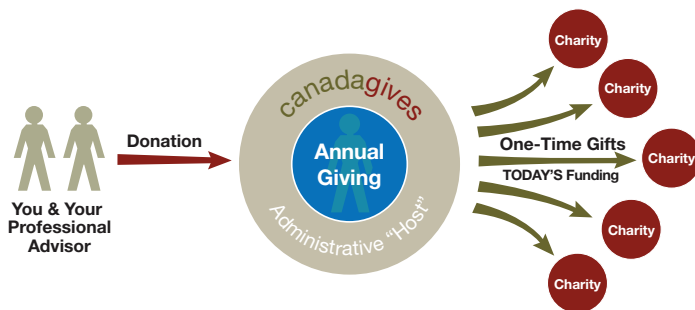

Canada Gives Annual Administration Fee: 1.25% to 0.50% : Minimum fee $1,500

Corporate Foundation Account

Allows organizations to set up their own Canada Gives Foundation Account to consolidate donations from the company, executives or partners, employees et al. It also facilitates fundraising efforts by pooling smaller donors together.

Canada Gives Annual Administration Fee: May vary based on number of donors and size of donations.

Annual Giving Account

Annual Giving accounts help donors simplify their annual gifts to charities by consolidating their gifting through one central source. All these gifts are available for immediate funding to the donor's choice of charities.

Canada Gives Administration Fee: Up to 3% (1% to advisers): Minimum fee $250
