

Expand Your Funding Opportunities

A new service for Canada Gives clients

Most active family foundations select and fund charities through a grant application process. Now Canada Gives Foundations can join these leading funders in the not for profit sector.

By listing your Canada Gives Foundation Profile in Grant Connect, an innovative research tool developed by Imagine Canada, your Foundation will receive requests from charities akin to a job application.

Before hiring an employee, cover letters and resumes give you an idea of the experience, skills and fit of potential candidates.

Likewise, a grant application is a simple, standardized way to learn more about charities whose work aligns with your interests, and empowers you to evaluate whether or not you'd like to support them.

Contact Canada Gives to explore whether this service will help you expand your Foundation's reach and impact in the not for profit sector.
